

ANTHROPOLOGY

1. The method of Participant Observation as a technique of data collection in Anthropology was first employed by
(A) W. H. R. Rivers (B) B. Malinowski
(C) E. B. Tylor (D) Seligman
2. The root word religio from which the term religion is derived, means
(A) to attract (B) to separate
(C) to bind together (D) None of the above
3. Who is the author of "The Threshold of Religion"?
(A) E. B. Tylor (B) B. Malinowski
(C) Franz Boas (D) R. R. Marett
4. The basic difference between a schedule and a questionnaire is
(A) both are filled up by the informants
(B) both are filled up by the researcher
(C) a schedule is filled up by the researcher whereas a questionnaire is filled up by the informant
(D) None of the above
5. The Todas of Nilgiri Hills in South India are famous for the practice of
(A) Fraternal polyandry (B) Sororal polygyny
(C) Levirate (D) None of the above
6. The practice of referring to a person as the father or the mother of his/her child is known as
(A) Avunculate (B) Teknonymy
(C) Amitate (D) Avoidance
7. Which of the following are the characteristics of culture?
(A) Culture is dynamic and adaptive
(B) Culture is transmissive
(C) Culture is the learned ways of behaviour
(D) All of the above
8. Bride price is given by the family of the
(A) to-be groom (B) to-be bride
(C) Both (D) None of the above