

APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY

1. How does prejudice against gay men and lesbians differ from other prejudices ?
(A) Targets control category visibility
(B) Relatively more widespread
(C) Biological determinism is linked to tolerance
(D) All of the above
2. Which of the following is referred as a passage from one stage of development to another ?
(A) Period of change
(B) Transitional period
(C) Problematic period
(D) Threshold period
3. A systematic study of facts according to a reliable and correct method of study is called a....
(A) Scientific Study
(B) Biological Study
(C) Social Technique
(D) Methodology
4. Rajat is satisfied only if he does everything perfectly. This is an instance of—
(A) Social pressure
(B) Internal Pressure
(C) Conflict
(D) Social stress
5. Psychology in the workplace is the subject matter of :
(A) Social Psychology
(B) Industrial or organizational psychology
(C) Academic Psychology
(D) Clinical Psychology
6. Why might happy people be more helpful ?
(A) They want to stay in a happy mood
(B) They like others more when they are happy
(C) They are more optimistic when they are happy
(D) All of the above
7. Adolescence is usually a time of _____.
(A) laziness
(B) restraint
(C) unrealism
(D) reality
8. _____ is to nature as _____ is to nurture.
(A) Environment, Genes
(B) Conscious, Unconscious
(C) Inaccuracy, Accuracy
(D) Biology, Experience
9. If you are having a conversation about someone's mental health, what should you NOT do ?
(A) Reassure the person
(B) Tell them you will talk about it to other people
(C) Ask simple questions and encourage them to share
(D) Choose an appropriate place where they feel relaxed