Dear Madam/Sir,

We are pleased to inform you that the National Centre for Cooperative Education (NCCE) under the aegis of National Cooperative Union of India (NCUI) has planned to organize a "Refresher Course on Cooperative Policy and Development" for Faculty members of Indian Universities/Colleges from 21 – 25 August 2023 at NCCE, New Delhi.

As we know that human resources are the strength of cooperatives. It is important to keep them abreast with new skills and knowledge to manage their business in a competitive way, to face the challenges and sustain in the market.

Therefore, the objective of this programme is to refresh the knowledge of teaching faculty and trainers who are teaching 'Cooperation' as a subject in various educational institutions, on latest development in cooperative sector in terms of law & policy, new initiatives, innovation and challenges etc. This course also aims at building the capacity of the teaching faculty on imparting a comprehensive knowledge and information with the students on genesis and evolution of the cooperative business model, as collective enterprises that makes difference in the lives of people.

This programmes also offers an opportunity to network with the participants, academicians and cooperative leaders for future collaboration.

The training programme will be conducted physically in our campus in Delhi as a residential programme. We are keeping up the COVID-19 protocol in our campus and observing proper sanitisation and social distancing.

The following facilities will be provided by NCCE to attend the progarmme in Delhi:

1. 3 Tier AC/Ordinary bus (to and fro) fare to the participants for attending programme after producing original tickets
2. Boarding and lodging facility in the hostel of NCCE
3. Training and Course material
4. Study visit to a cooperative institution

You are requested to nominate at least two participants from your institution to attend this course. Priority may be given to women/SC/ST/OCB candidates. The participants should carry a photocopy of their Aadhar Card for necessary records. A copy of the nomination form and course profile are attached for ready reference.

The participants may be advised to please proceed to Delhi only after getting confirmation from NCCE.
