

Third Annada Charan Bhagabati Annual Memorial Lecture 2023

To cherish the life and contribution of late Professor Annada Charan Bhagabati, the Third Annada Charan Bhagabati Annual Memorial Lecture was organized by the Department of Anthropology, Dibrugarh University, on 22nd November, 2023 at Indira Miri Conference Hall of the University. M.C. Arunkumar, Professor, Department of Anthropology and Director, Centre for Myanmar Studies, Manipur University, Imphal was invited as the distinguished speaker. He spoke on the topic “Inequality and its Manifestations: Anthropological Enquiry”. Prof. Arunkumar highlighted the interference between inequality and culture in the changing dimensions of North-East societies and stimulated the minds of the audience by pondering the answer to the questions – “Is inequality avoidable or unavoidable?” His talk highlighted the demands and methodological concerns in the studies of inequality in the various strata of the society. The program started with a welcome address by Prof. Nitul Kumar Gogoi, Head, Department of Anthropology, Dibrugarh University, followed by Lighting of Lamp and paying Floral Tribute to Late. Professor Annada Charan Bhagabati by the members present in the event. Hon’ble Vice-Chancellor (i/c) of Dibrugarh University, Prof. Jahnabi Gogoi graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. Mrs. Purnima Bhagabati, wife and Mrs. Moana Bhagabati, daughter, of Late. Professor Annada Charan Bhagabati were also present virtually and shared their valuable words and thoughts pertinent to the event. Eminent academicians and retired faculty members of the Department attended the event, as it was organized in blended mode.

